The Christian Annual

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

1.9.1.8

EDITED AND COMPILED BY
J. F. BURNETT, Secretary
American Christian Convention

The Christian Publishing Association
NETUM RATHBUN, Manager
DAYTON, OHIO

Things You Should Know

- That this number of The Christian Annual contains some things never before published.
- That there is a new and different arrangement of Conference, Sunday-School, Christian Endeavor, and Woman's Mission Board reports.
- That you should not condemn the new arrangement until you have used it long enough to be familiar with it, for at the first it may be awkward and unsatisfactory.
- That this number contains much information which you should have and which will benefit you when you have it, for the year's work of the whole Church is quite largely recorded in it.
- That if some things are omitted from the contents of this publication which you expected to see in it, that they were not reported to the editor, or were not of admissible character to the publication.
- That if you know what other conferences are doing, and how they have done it, it will help you to make yours more efficient. Read and compare, know and do, for what others have done, you may do.
- That if you will study this book you will be able to answer almost any inquiry concerning the year's activities of the Christian Church. As a people, we are doing something, and what we do should be known.
- That some conference secretaries do not wait to be asked for their reports, but send them in immediately their conference session adjourns, while some others have to be written to from one to four, and sometimes more, times.
- That this number contains the names of 676 soldier boys who went out from churches to make the supreme sacrifice for their country. The name of the church, the name of the pastor (when known), and the name of the boy are given.
- That if the name of one of your church or conference officers appears as Mr. Smith, or Mrs. Jones, that that is the way they were reported by your conference secretary. The editor did not know the missing names and was too timid to guess.
- That where the name of Edna Blue is found that it may be Mrs., or it may be Miss, and the editor had no means of knowing which, and so let it stand, and if a Mrs. gets a letter addressed Miss, and a Miss gets a letter addressed Mrs., they must not blame The Christian Annual.
- That the report of the Miami Ohio Christian Conference is worthy of careful study. It is indeed quite complete. Read it and see how few places are unfilled. The secretary of this conference is a busy man, being superintendent in the composing department of The Christian Publishing Association, pastor of the Walnut Hills Christian Church, chorus leader, vice-president of an insurance society, and yet finds time to make his report full and complete.

That along aside of the above named conference should be placed the Eastern Indiana, for it has the largest number of churches and ministers of any conference of the Christians, and you will find the report quite complete. You should study with interest and care the summary as given by Rev. A. M. Addington, Secretary for Churches.

That when you have examined this number, you should speak of its value to others, and especially should pastors do this. There is little danger of the rank and file of our people being too well informed, but there is great danger of them not knowing enough about the church to which they belong to make them intelligently efficient.

That every one having anything to do with preparing matter for The Christian Annual, or doing any other work, did their best. Especial mention should be made of Miss Florence Powers, the Convention stenographer, who prepared all the conference reports for the printers. Owing to the change in arrangement this had to be done. It was a tedious task, requiring care and thought, and many hard day's work on the typewriter. The correctness of the copy reveals how well she did her work.

That the editor and all his co-laborers sincerely hope that this issue of The Christian Annual will prove its value to the ministers and church officers, and that it will be a pleasant and oft-consulted friend in every home of the Christians. It contains the information which every minister and church officer especially should have, but it cannot impart it unless it is used. Do not allow it to remain closed in your home. Ask questions about the church and go to The Christian Annual for your answer.

That The Christian Publishing House force rendered every possible aid to the work, and did it not only without hope of material compensation, but the almost assured fact of a loss to its funds. Our brethren would do well to keep in mind that WE, the CHRISTIANS, own and control a plant called The Christian Publishing House, and that loyalty to it means loyalty to our cause, and that any patronage turned away from it, means just that much money out of our own treasury and that much in another's, to say nothing of the example and influence of such acts.

That heretofore The Christian Annual has been published at quite a financial loss to The Christian Publishing Association, and that provision has been made for a possible deficit this year to be shared among the different departments of The American Christian Convention. There should be no loss, and the ministers of the denomination ought to blush at the thought of a loss on a publication of this character. If each minister whose name appears in the list would purchase a copy of The Christian Annual, there would not only not be a deficit, but a small surplus to the credit of the account.

A FOREWORD FOR NINETEEN EIGHTEEN

BY REV. F. G. COFFIN, D. D.

President American Christian Convention

Glancing backward on our denominational track from this eminence of 1918, there is enough success along that backward way to encourage us and enough failure to admonish us. Our intelligent, well-cooperated efforts are full of inspiration, while our poorly-planned programs with partial enlistments are causes for humiliation. The present is no time for lament—it is a period for action. "Let the dead past bury its dead" while we are to "act in the living present, heart within and God overhead." Who looks only backward stumbles headlong and helpless into his future. Who turns his eyes in no direction but to an unseeable future loses all sense of range for a safe direction of his life course. To fail to look backward is to go wildly, dangerously on. To fail to look forward is to travel aimlessly and uselessly.

There is no way of gauging the future, but by the past. There is no way of measuring the value of the past except by the future. From almost every experience of the past comes enforced the demand for denominational compactness. Our interests are scattered. And otherwise strong denominational impact is weakened by a failure to put a whole church behind every enterprise. Officially our interests of Missions, Education, Publishing, etc. are not coordinated with each other for the greatest efficiency. There is too much independence and too little interdependence. Each section of our denominational officialdom sees features of the church life, but not always in relation to other features. Our Boards meet at various times. They have no close inter-relation with other denominational Boards, consequently there is a lack of coordination, which to say the least, argues inefficiency. Some future Convention will create a General Board of the Christian Church, composed of a few directors of each church interest, which will have authority to so revise departmental plans as to coordinate the whole, making every department helpful to every other department. Such a plan will eliminate much "lost motion" and create unity of objective and program.

The greatest immediate call before us as a church is, I believe, in the Forward Movement. It is comprehensive enough to treat all phases of our needs and definite enough to make possible a program of work. It is of such magnitude that no half-hearted effort will ever be able to insure its success. It must be made the big thing of our purpose for the years to come. Every member should feel a just share of responsibility for its success. If every member of the Christian Church will align himself with this Movement, it will succeed.

The coming year will make exorbitant demands and impose herculean tasks upon all Christians. The state of the world and its future uncertainty permits no easy-going religion. The call of the day is for the strongest, in faith, heart, and body. The hour of the great sacrifice is upon us. The Master came to a period when, though he saved others, Himself he could not save. In the face of the demands of our country, a world and Christ's Kingdom, let us enter into a new covenant with Him to go with Him all the way.

HOME MISSION ACTIVITIES

BY REV. OMER S. THOMAS

First: There is the work of making the churches of the denomination so efficient that they may do their part in the evangelization of America as well as form an adequate base for all of the mission propaganda of the church. This has been sought in the campaign for conservation of the forces we have already as resources. All of the time, more and more of the churches are using the every-member canvass to enlist all of their members in the service. A campaign is now being started which has set the goal of having every member of the Christian Church give as a minimum one cent a day to missions. We ask the cooperation of every pastor and worker in this reasonable endeavor.

Omer S. Thomas

the proper standard of efficiency. Advancement has been made in that there is a tendency on the part of the churches to demand higher standards.

Second: During the past year the Home Mission Secretary has made a survey of the conferences to get an idea as to the pastorates and the absentee pastors. Reports from forty conferences show that seventy-five per cent. of our churches are in the country and about ninety per cent. of these are without resident pastors. The absentee pastors live an average distance of twenty-five miles from their churches. In some of the conferences the average distance is over fifty miles. This survey presents a problem for us to solve in the interest of a greater mission to hundreds of communities in the country districts in locating pastors and creating pastorates and securing parsonages.

Third: In the Frontier work there has been good advancement, not only in growth in the established fields, but in the extension of the work into new fields. In Washington the base of the field of work is in Montesano where there is a church which is doing excellent work under the pastorate of Rev. D. C. Loucks. Brother Loucks also preaches at Wynoochee Valley every Sunday afternoon, which is more service than that organization has ever had. Rev. W. R. Caldwell has opened up four new points for preaching to the lumber camps during the year as well as reorganizing some of the work that had gone down.

In Wyoming, Rev. W. S. Alexander has, during the year, opened three new points for preaching and reports excellent interest in all the other places. During the year one of the places where work has been carried on the longest, at Trestle, the schoolhouse was moved more than two miles northwest. The work has been continued in the new location and is reaching some of the same folks and some new ones, so that there is better prospect than in the old location. On the whole the Frontier work is very encouraging.

Fourth: There still continues to be a need for aiding churches which are just beginning or have been unfortunate. On account of the lack of funds not as much assistance has been given as needed, but very much good has resulted. The policy of the Board has been to concentrate the work and give larger assistance and has shown the wisdom in the results attained. About five hundred members have been added to our home mission churches during the year. Figures, however, cannot tell results in the sowing of seed for the Kingdom.

Beside the frontier churches, thirty-two churches and one conference received aid this year.

Fifth: The Board is planning to try to start a new work for aliens during the coming year, but the plans are not yet mature enough to make a very definite announcement. Pray that it may succeed.

Sixth: The receipts for the year to the general home mission work were $1,736.86 better than they were last year. The following is a summary to home work:

THE FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

BY REV. M. T. MORRILL

In reviewing the year's work in Japan and Porto Rico we will not be able to single out many things unusual or noteworthy, but there has been steady effort with satisfactory results and not a little inspiration.

Perhaps the most important result in Japan has been the formulation by the Japan Christian Conference, at its session last March, of a plan looking toward self-support. Churches have been divided into three classes, according to their working membership and financial ability, and each class is expected to attain self-support at the end of a specified number of years. It may mean a long up-hill pull for some churches; but a definite plan of this nature is a long step in advance and a splendid commentary on the spirit of the Japanese Christians.

At the same conference for the first time laymen were present as church representatives and a working part of conference. This innovation proved a tonic to the whole body, and hereafter lay delegates as well as ministerial will be the rule. Much strength has thus been added to the work.

In the spring a change of pastors was effected, the men at Moka, Ichinoseki, and Ishinomaki being rotated one notch each. Good results have already come from this change.

Christians at Kannari, a little outpost in the Sendai station, have surprised the Mission by making a considerable contribution toward a chapel for their town, and requesting a modest special grant of $450.00 to help erect the building. One aged member, many years a Christian, also deeded to the Mission a plot of land in the town to help with the chapel, thereby parting with so much property as to disfranchise himself. Surely Christianity has a genuine grip on Kannari.

Milo T. Morrill

Rev. E. K. McCord and family reached America in July on furlough, and are now located at 85 Barnett St., Dayton, Ohio. Mr. McCord is busy with field work, and raising money for the Naka Shibuya work and a new mission home.

Present status of the work: Ordained ministers, 12; evangelists, 1; Bible women, 3; theological students, 3; organized churches, 14; members, 1,143; baptisms past year, 116; Sunday-schools, 33; enrollment, 2,679; outposts, 15; Christian Endeavor Societies, 8; total money raised during year, $1,100.00; value of mission property, $22,000.00.

Turning now to Porto Rico, we notice first the conference session held in February at Ponce, well attended, presenting a program stronger and better prepared than usual. The general effect of the gathering was more than salutary.

A few weeks later followed the resignation of a trusted pastor and the lapse of adherents of the work. This might well have disheartened the workers, but the statistics for the year indicate that that handicap was overcome.

Nothing in the year's history can equal in importance the great prohibition victory won by popular vote in July, when the drink traffic was outlawed by a majority of thirty-eight thousand. Porto Rican prosperity is now assured, if the tremendous resources of the little island are thoroughly developed.

The purchase of a mission home in the month of October, in Ponce, has cut off a big rent bill and given us a permanent missionary residence. This addition to equipment will have very beneficial effect on the whole work.

Statistics for the year are: Ordained ministers, 2; unordained, 1; Bible women, 1; organized churches, 5; members, 319; baptisms, 44; enquirers, 45; Sunday-schools, 9; enrollment, 749; Christian Endeavor Societies, 2; members, 51; total money raised, $319.52; value of mission property, $21,000.00.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD

Rev. William Garbutt Sargent, B. A., D. D., Providence, R. I.—Chairman of Board.
Rev. Hugh A. Smith, Ph. B., D. D., West Milton, Ohio—Clerk of Board.
Rev. W. T. Walters, M. A., D. D., Winchester, Virginia.
Rev. John A. Stover, M. A., Danville, Illinois.

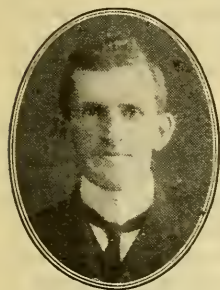

While world conditions have interfered, to some extent, with the development of our college work, during the past year, there has been, with most of our schools manifestations of progress, some of them most marked. The most pronounced result, apart from the effect of the present world spirit, which enters every organized and unorganized expression of life, for good or ill, is in the attendance. All of our colleges have given their quota of volunteers and conscripts, and the first of the martyrs, on this side of the line, to lay his life down for the cause of human liberty was in the person of Charles N. Whitelock, a son of Judge O. W. Whitelock, and an undergraduate of Elon College, who died in October, 1917. This, up to October 31, is the second member of our student body to die in the world struggle against the dominance of autocracy, Alexander Chisholm, of our Toronto student body, being the first.

The attendance in all our schools last year reached a total of 1,517, the highest on record. Of these 818, or nearly fifty-two per cent., were college students, preceding regularly to degree. The registry of ministerial students was ninety-nine, scarcely less than have been reported before. It is of interest to note the proportion representing homes of members of the Christian Church. As reported the representation was as follows: Jireh, fifty per cent.; Union Christian, fifty per cent.; Defiance, twenty-two per cent.; Palmer, twenty-one per cent.; Franklinton ninety-three per cent.; Elon, forty-six per cent.; Starkey Seminary, thirty-six per cent.

The number of instructors employed by all our schools is 111.

The spiritual life of our schools and colleges is most marked, the chief aim being to help in the building of Christian character. Public evangelistic services have been held in four of our institutions, while all report effort is made to reach each of the students by personal contact. In each case endeavor is made to get the student to unite with some church, the local one, if he so prefers.

W. G. Sargent

The reports of 1917 show an investment of $914,605.44 in buildings and equipment, while the total endowment of our combined institutions is $716,639.51, making a total of $1,631,449.95 invested in college property. It is expected that increased endowments and new buildings will soon bring this sum up to $2,000,000.00. The total indebtedness, incurred by four only of the colleges, is $95,515.00.

Since the last annual report Jireh College has installed a new heating plant, added some scientific apparatus, and enlarged her library. Defiance reports library doubled, new central heating plant installed, and a remodelling of the lower floor of girls' dormitory. She also enlarged her endowment by $150,000. Franklinton has been able to finish the entire basement, fitting it up with dining room, kitchen, pantry, and two class rooms. Palmer has completed her new $30,000 dormitory. Union Christian reports interior decorative improvements, a new athletic field, and a more adequate equipment of scientific laboratory and domestic science rooms.

The Board at Jireh has made some effort to secure funds for a new dormitory, but on account of the somewhat protracted illness of the president and other hindrances, has not, as yet, been able to secure adequate support to place the project on a sound financial basis. Union Christian has been continuing her efforts to standardize her course, and Palmer has entered the ranks of Junior Colleges by affiliating with the State University. The Board of Control of Franklinton has put forth endeavor to pay one-half of the mortgage outstanding against the property, but has not met with the response the school merits. We expect the Board will push the matter until the entire indebtedness is wiped out and the school is rid of her temporary embarrassment.

The educational project at Toronto has been brought almost to a standstill by war conditions. This is not at all to be wondered at when we learn that Provincial University, at one time, considered closing its doors during the war. We are hoping for renewed activity there when the war is over.

The New England work, which has undertaken to center at Bangor, is also temporarily affected by the war. Rev. H. M. Hainer, the pastor of the Bangor church and the representative of the Christian Church at Bangor Seminary, has spent some time recruiting students throughout New England for our future pulpit supply and directing them to Bangor. We are hoping for larger developments there when normal conditions obtain.

At the spring commencement the Secretary visited Jireh, securing a pass from Chicago westward through the courtesy of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway. The opportunities before the school there are very great; but the Church must see to the financing of the enterprise as the local constituency is hardly able, as yet, to do so. The Secretary was impressed with the fact that now is the time to act, as colonization is taking place rapidly, and if Jireh College does not measure up to its opportunity it is only a matter of a short time until some other denomination enters the field with larger financial resources and much more certain prospects of success.

The chronicle of the year's work, however brief, would in no wise be complete without mention of the tragic loss suffered by Defiance College, in the loss of her president and Mrs. McReynolds. Note of so sad a happening will be made elsewhere in this year book; but the Secretary speaks for the Board of Education, as well as for the whole brotherhood, when he says the loss is simply overwhelming. This splendid man of God had so stamped his personality on Defiance College that his memory will be cherished as long as Defiance stands. Were it not that God raises up workmen to take the places of those who fall, as history witnesses, we would wonder what would be the effect upon the college there, and if it could stand forth from under the blow to realize the ideals he had set in the hearts of those who labored with him in building the college into so substantial a place in the educational structure of the State of Ohio. But other hands will take up the work, and other hearts and minds fulfil the promises of this institution, and the hopes of Dr. and Mrs. McReynolds, who were giving their lives with such absolute devotion to the work of making Defiance second to none in the educational ranks of the State. Dean Albert G. Caris was at once appointed acting president by the Board of Governors, and under his guidance we may expect a continuance of the policy that made for so large success for the institution in the few years of its growth to its present commanding position.

A NEW DAY FOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The great International Convention of Christian Endeavor, which was scheduled to assemble in New York City, July 4-9, 1917, was postponed on account of the great world-war, but the officers and trustees of the United Society met at Winona Lake and outlined a great program for the next two years with the special intent to make the societies efficient within and to enable them as such as well as individuals to do their patriotic bit in this time of world-crisis. The standards adopted will be given below.

Societies passing the 100 mark will receive a ribbon marked "With Distinction," to be attached to their "Superior" certificate.

As each ten points are earned place a red seal over corresponding circle.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION

There is no conflict between these standards as a careful investigation will reveal. In both of them, No. 5 of the Dixie Standards and No. 1 of the United Society Standards, provision is made for Denomination Standards. Both allow 20% on the denominational standards. We Christians have accordingly adopted our standards. We hope every society will set out to meet our standards and then reach out to complete also either the United Society, or the Dixie Standards. Here are our own standards:

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR STANDARDS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

- 10 per cent. increase in Membership.
- 10 cents per member for C. E. Department of A. C. C.
- 50 cents per member for Missions.

Will you not also write me at once the points your society has already attained on these standards?

Will you not also write me at once what rating you will aim to attain in the contest?

Will you not write me monthly of the progress you have attained?

Without your help this standardization campaign cannot succeed. Shall it succeed?

Won't you pray and work for these goals and get your society to do so, too?

Will you not fill out the enclosed card and mail immediately? I will fill in the points attained, if you will fill in the remainder.

With every good wish and praying for your society's great usefulness and usableness, I am,

MANY RESPOND

Already many societies have filled out these cards and signified their expectation to enter the Christian Endeavor Standardization Contest. It will be a monstrous pity, a dire calamity, if our societies do not rally grandly to this challenge to their zeal and for their efficiency. Let every one who reads this do his bit to make this campaign go.

BUT THIS IS NOT ALL

During the past year the Secretary has made more than a hundred of our Endeavorers into Christian Endeavor Experts. Not all our young people have elected to receive their diplomas through the department, but more than one hundred have. That is a good showing. Let us keep it up.

We have continued to pay our part of the office expenses of the Secretary of Religious Education.

The American Christian Convention Executive Board has assessed us for a portion of the expense of The Christian Annual, and it is but just that we should pay it. That means we must have more money. The Endeavorers are hereby called on to furnish it.

The Eel River Endeavorers are still at work to raise the funds to place their missionary in the field.

The Endeavor Societies have paid through the regular channels the past year for Home Missions $101.36 and for Foreign Missions $389.25, and for the Christian Endeavor Missionary Fund $311.03, a total of $801.64.

ACTIVITIES OF THE BOARD

During the year closing with this CHRISTIAN ANNUAL, the Sunday-school Board has been much busier than the following report will indicate, as much of the study and planning cannot be committed to paper, and only bare mention can be made of activities that required extensive time and sacrifice to work out to completion.

The annual meeting of the Sunday-school Board was held at Norfolk, Virginia, in the Memorial Temple, July 14, 1917; and in the enforced absence of the Chairman, was called to order by Secretary Eldredge, and Dr. S. Q. Helfenstein opened the meeting with prayer.

The following members of the Board were present: Dr. A. B. Kendall, Dr. S. Q. Helfenstein, Rev. McD. Howsare, and Mr. Hermon Eldredge.

Mr. Netum Rathbun, Business Manager of The Christian Publishing Association, was invited to participate in the deliberations of the Board.

Rev. A. B. Kendall, D. D., was elected Chairman of the Board for the session. The minutes of the Board for 1916 session were read and approved.

Secretary Eldredge presented correspondence from Chairman W. C. Wicker, explaining and regretting his absence, together with suggestions from Chairman Wicker, regarding work before the committee.

W. C. Wicker

The action of The American Christian Convention Board in calling Mr. Eldredge into the field as Secretary of Religious Education of The American Christian Convention was reported. It was moved by Dr. Helfenstein and seconded by Mrs. Bullock that the Sunday-school Board cooperate with The American Christian Convention in the support of a Secretary of Religious Education and that this Board assume responsibility of twenty per cent. of the full budget of that office, of three thousand dollars, making the liability of this Board six hundred dollars a year for this work. The motion was carried.

Voted that we authorize the payment of $37.50 of the assessment of the Sunday-school Council for the International Lesson Committee. The motion was carried.

Manager Rathbun, of The Christian Publishing Association, presented the matter of Graded Lessons and offers he had received from the Standard Publishing Company, of Cincinnati, the Christian Board of Publications of St. Louis, and the Westminster Press of Philadelphia. The first two of these propositions had to do with the closely graded series and the last with the departmental graded system. Mr. Rathbun presented the matter from both the practical and the financial side, and the matter was discussed at length by the Board without coming to a final decision. The sentiment of the meeting favored the departmental graded lessons, but some opposition was made to the imprint of another denomination on these lessons. It was voted to appoint a committee consisting of Dr. Kendall, Rev. Howsare, and Mrs. Bullock, with power to act with a committee from The Christian Publishing Association.

It was voted to raise a special Sunday-school fund of at least one thousand dollars per year consisting of one thousand annual shares of one dollar each to be divided among the Sunday-schools of our denomination, each school to subscribe for as many shares as possible, the first payment to be made during the year 1917, and annually thereafter until the school should revoke the subscription in writing.

Dr. A. B. Kendall (Ravena, N. Y.) was elected Financial Secretary of the Board and it was voted that all moneys of this special fund be remitted to Dr. Kendall and be sent by him to the treasurer of this Board, and it was voted that the Board authorize the expense incidental to the campaign of correspondence and publicity through pamphlets, etc., and in our Sunday-school periodicals.

The following were elected as assistants to Dr. Kendall in the districts named:

Mrs. Jane T. Goodwin, New England.
Rev. McD. Howsare, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky.
Rev. H. G. Rowe, Indiana, Illinois.
Mrs. Fred Bullock, Southern Christian Convention.
Dr. A. B. Kendall, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey.
Rev. W. P. Fletcher, Canada.

The Secretary of the Western Christian Convention was authorized to promote this work in that section.

Moved and carried that all bills coming under the province of this Board shall be approved by the Board or by the Chairman before payment of same is made.

Secretary Eldredge reported progress on the matter of organization of the field and stated that a Commission on Organization from The American Christian Convention, Dr. W. W. Staley, Chairman, had presented a report at the last session of The American Christian Convention and it had been referred to the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention.

A communication was presented from Mr. W. C. Pearce, Field Secretary of the International Sunday-school Association, requesting this Board on the Sunday-school work of the Christian Church to accept the denominational and interdenominational standards and promote same in place of the promotion of Front-Line and other standards.

Moved and carried to accept the denominational and interdenominational standards of Sunday-school work and that our denominational standards conform with this action.

Moved and carried that our Sunday-school charts and literature be printed and confined to the denominational and interdenominational standards, provided that we may use the Front-Line Certificates now on hand in recognition of schools obtaining the denominational standard.

STANDARD SUNDAY-SCHOOL OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Adopted by the Sunday-school Board of The American Christian Convention as a minimum standard of excellence for the Sunday-schools of the Christian Church, at Norfolk, Virginia, July 14, 1917.

1. A Cradle Roll and a Home Department.
2. One or more organized classes in the Secondary and Adult Divisions.
3. Teacher-Training Class, meeting regularly.
4. Graded organization and instruction.
5. Missionary instruction.
6. Temperance instruction.
7. Decisions for Christ urged.
8. A workers' conference, meeting regularly.
9. Annual offering and reports to Sunday-school work of the Christian Church.
10. School represented at one or more Sunday-school Conventions or School of Methods.

Schools obtaining the above ten points will qualify as Standard Sunday-schools of the Christian Church and will be entitled to the engraved certificate, suitable for framing, by application to Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Secretary of the Sunday-school Board, at Erie, Pa.

Mrs. Fred Bullock presented her report as Superintendent of the Elementary Department of the Board together with her report of attendance at the session of the Sunday-school Council in Boston in January and visit to several churches in New York and New England. She also reported correspondence with regard to the work of the Sunday-school Council and the denomination regarding elementary work. The report was adopted.

It was voted to authorize Mrs. Fred Bullock and the Secretary to issue such literature for Sunday-school promotion as could be distributed to advantage among our schools.

Secretary Rowe reported progress of the Secondary Division through correspondence with Mrs. Fred Bullock.

Rev. McD. Howsare presented a report on Adult Work of the denomination and asked for further instructions, stating himself willing to be helpful in promoting the work along this line.

Dr. A. B. Kendall reported his attendance at the Sunday-school Council in Boston and progress on the new three years' Teacher-Training course, stating that a manuscript for the first books had been placed in his hands for examination, correction, and approval. It was voted that we accept the Teacher-Training standards of the Sunday-school Council and the Interdenominational Sunday-school Association and their new three years' course when the books for the same have been reviewed and endorsed by the Secretary of our Teacher-Training Department.

It was voted that attendance at the following gatherings in the order named be authorized:

Meetings of the International Lesson Committee by Mr. Hermon Eldredge; annual meeting of the Sunday-school Council by Mrs. Fred Bullock; Adult Bible Class Conference or Convention by Rev. McD. Howsare.

Moved that Rev. McD. Howsare and Dr. S. Q. Helfenstein be appointed a committee with power to arrange with The Christian Publishing Association and to publish the program, "The Sunday-school's Patriotic Activities."

The Chairman of the Board has furnished the Sunday-school notes to The Herald of Gospel Liberty during the year and conducted the correspondence of his office, prepared the Annual Call, and issued Front-Line Certificates to those schools that meet the requirements for this standard of excellence. Their names have been published in The Teachers and Officers Journal.

BUREAU OF EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL SERVICE

BY REV. OLIVER W. POWERS, D. D., Secretary

The Bureau of Evangelism and Social Service was created by the Springfield Convention with a view to continuous effort among our churches in promoting the objects indicated by its name. As it is recognized that the special problems confronting the Rural Church are practically Social Service problems, that department of effort has been included in its aims.

The methods of the Bureau during the past year have been principally correspondence and circularizing, extensive field work not being practicable. The attempt has been made to work largely through the pastors. To these, three general circulars have been sent.

The first circular urged the development of a sense of community responsibility; revival efforts that should include increased knowledge, greater efficiency and broader sympathy toward the greater movements among the churches, as contrasted with mere "campaigns for members;" cooperation of pastors in revival efforts; community surveys; the holding of Rural Life Institutes and other means of emphasizing the special needs of the country church, and the organization of study classes. It also urged the study and acceptance of the "Policy and Program" set forth by the Federal Council Commission on the Church and Country Life, and better methods of church finance.

The second circular stressed the work of the American Red Cross, the opportunities for Social Welfare Work afforded by the military training camps, the need of maintaining Industrial Standards, and earnest effort in the direction of the Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic and the Promotion of International Justice and Good-will. Literature prepared by the Federal Council Commission on the Church and Social Service, bearing the imprint of our own Commission on Social Service, and literature furnished by the American Council of the World Alliance for the Promotion of International Friendship accompanied this circular.

O. W. Powers

The third circular was an attempt to gather up some of the results of the educational work thus far carried on, and to ascertain the present attitude of the pastors. A series of questions was prepared covering the most important activities of the churches in the direction of the Bureau work. It was hoped that even if replies were not always given, the questions would serve to suggest standards to be attained. Quite a good percentage of the pastors replied, and with commendable promptness and thoroughness.

Concerning Evangelism, the replies show that ninety-one per cent. of those reporting had held evangelistic services during the year, showing that this form of activity still has a very large place. About one-fourth of these had no assistance outside of their own congregations. Most of the others called in their brother pastors, very few depending upon specialists or traveling evangelists. (The very excellent work reported by the churches that received the assistance of the Eel River Conference Evangelist is really no exception to this, as the evangelist was called out of the pastorate for this work.)

All but ten of the meetings reported resulted in additions to the church. This does not indicate that the ten were failures, but they simply did not register in that way. Inquiry concerning methods used covered four, in addition to preaching: house-to-house visitation, cottage prayer-meetings, personal interviews, and distribution of literature. Seven of the meetings which resulted in no additions used none of these methods; while the other three used them to only a limited extent. Seven pastors reported faithful use of all four, and the average of additions for these was twice that of the whole number reporting.

The largest activity in Social Service was reported on behalf of the Red Cross. (Eighty per cent.) About one-half of the pastors had presented the matter of War Relief. Only about one-third (probably because of lack of opportunity) evinced interest in Welfare Work for the soldiers.

Interest of pastors in law enforcement, and in reforms dependent upon legislation is not reassuring, except in regard to the liquor traffic. A civic revival seems to be needed.

An inquiry into the attitude of the pastors and churches toward the recreational life of the church and community shows much to be desired. Poverty of resource within the church, and indifference to what goes on in the community seems to be a common characteristic. However, there were some notable exceptions.

Much other valuable information was secured from the replies, which as far as possible will be passed on to the pastors, or utilized in future work.

A Conference at Craigville, Mass., under the auspices of the Commission on Social Service, and presided over by the chairman, Rev. P. S. Sailer, gave opportunity for the discussion of topics of moment, especially concerning the war time activities of the churches.

Visits by the Secretary to a few conferences revealed a gratifying recognition of the importance of advanced methods in church work. The discussions and addresses were mostly of a high order, and on vital present-day topics.

In view of the multitudinous agencies for church activity already established, and especially those being developed by the increasing cooperation of the denominations, and the quickening of all church and social activities in the presence of the gigantic world struggle into which our nation is entering, it is not wise to try to create new machinery or to inaugurate new enterprises. Rather our effort should be to supplement the work of agencies already established, and to see to it that our own people cooperate effectively with the work carried forward by the various inter-church movements. It is true that this policy will not give us outstanding prominence and recognition, nor does it furnish results that can be caught in statistics and presented in tabulations; but it will be more effective for the advancement of the Kingdom.

When Germany was in great distress, crushed to earth by the great Napoleon, the sovereign of Prussia called upon a famous philosopher to aid him in reorganizing the stricken kingdom. It was then that Humbolt said, "Whatever you would put into the state you must first put into the schools."

It comes to me every once in a while, when I am charged with accomplishing something among a people, how absolutely essential it is that we should have the influence of the church behind everything we do.—Ex-President Taft.

WOMAN'S BOARDS FOR HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

BY MRS. M. T. MORRILL

Thirty-one years ago, in October, 1886, during the Quadrennial Convention at New Bedford, Mass., the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions started on its mission of making a Highway for our King. Four years later they were joined by the Woman's Board for Home Missions, and down the succeeding years these two Boards have journeyed side by side in sweetest fellowship.

The history of these years is made up of lights and shadows, joys and disappointments, victories and seeming failures, but always the way has led upward and onward. Three names are inseparably linked with the beginnings and much of the history of both Boards: Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Rev. Ellen G. Gustin, Mrs. Achsah E. Weston. These were pioneers—trail-blazers, and to-day we are reaping from their seed-sowing. During these years approximately $100,000 has been turned into the general mission treasury. This amount has been given by practically one-tenth of the women of our churches. The year just closed has been our best, $9,725.27 having been received, an increase of $2,305.41 over last year. Forty Conference Boards are auxiliary to our Woman's Boards, and nearly two hundred local societies with probably five thousand members. Seventy-six new Life Members were welcomed into the Home Board last year and sixty into the Foreign Board. The work of the Literature Department is increasing rapidly; 37,722 leaflets were distributed last year, the total publications for the year being 33,000. The work of our young people is most encouraging. The Superintendent reports thirty-seven new societies. Eleven hundred babies are growing up in the Missionary Cradle Roll. The conferences winning banners for the largest per cent. increase in gifts over last year are as follows:—First, Western Illinois; Second, Rockingham; Third, Southern Indiana. The conferences giving over $300 are as follows:—

So much for the past, now let us turn our eyes toward the future. The Home Board will continue to work for our Frontier Fields, Franklinton College and Bishop Cottage. Their total financial goal is $4,000.00. The Foreign Board will again support the Sendai Station in Japan, beside several other fields in the Island Empire. They will also work for the Mission Homes in Tokyo, Japan, and Ponce, Porto Rico. Their total budget is $8,000. The Young People will provide for a teacher's salary at Franklinton and for the Santa Isabel work. Their "special" is the much-needed chapel at Santa Isabel. The Superintendent has set her heart on providing the entire amount by the time of the Quadrennial Convention.

The following action was taken at the annual meeting of the Boards in October: "February, 1918, shall be known as Mobilization Month, when we shall make definite, prayerful attempts to enlist more of our women and girls for the prosecution of the King's Business, through the organization of new societies and the securing of new members; to bring to them the privilege of the service of prayer and the obligation of stewardship." As we look through wide doorways into untouched fields we realize that our slogan can be none other than "Forward." That we may be fitted in mind and heart to promote God's plans and His alone is our prayer.

The Christian Publishing Association supplies the publicity end of the Christian Church in a very large measure.

It is an association organized under the laws of the State of Ohio, not for profit, but for benevolent purposes. Its editors and officers are elected every four years at the time of the quadrennial meeting of The American Christian Convention and by the delegates to this Convention, but acting for the time being, as members of The Christian Publishing Association. As these delegates represent our conferences and through the conferences our individual churches, we can readily see that The Christian Publishing Association is a creature of and controlled by the Christian Churches of the United States and Canada.

The editors are elected by and responsible to The American Christian Convention, sitting as members of the Publishing Association. The Board of Trustees elected by the same body have the control of the business and management of the Association, and it must give an account of its stewardship at the Convention every four years.

For many years the Association did not have a permanent home, but in recent years it has a PUBLISHING HOUSE, built by it at the corner of Fifth and Ludlow streets in the city of Dayton, Ohio. Not only does the Association conduct its business here, but in this House are the offices of the Secretary of The American Christian Convention and the Secretaries of Missions, both Home and Foreign. The House in the great Dayton flood a few years ago, suffered great losses—amounting to more than $10,000.00. During the past year, as an outgrowth of this great flood and as a preventive measure, great improvements have been planned to prevent recurrence of a flood in the city of Dayton, and to pay the expenses of these flood prevention improvements, assessments have been made against the property of the city of Dayton. The assessment against the Publishing Association is the sum of $8,027.10, to be paid 5% for four years and 6.95% for twenty-six years.

The brotherhood will see by these figures that the flood burden of The Christian Publishing Association has been and is over $18,000, besides the interest to be paid while the burden is carried. THIS LOAD HAS STAGGERED THE ASSOCIATION, but has not caused it to give up its great work for the Christian Church, but has rendered it less able to do what it had hoped to do in benevolences. It does, however, earnestly request the loyal support and cooperation of every member of the Christian Church, not a mere perfunctory support, but an ACTIVE, ENERGETIC, LOYAL SUPPORT.

O. W. Whitlock

What is the great work the Association is doing and to which it has "set its hand?" It publishes THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY, the official organ of the Church, the mouthpiece of the more than one hundred thousand members of the Christian Church. To speak to all these people, it should be in every home of the Church. It is not known accurately how many homes are represented in the Christian Church, but probably there is one home to every three members, that is a conservative estimate, and yet that would mean about 35,000 homes in which some one of the home is a member of the Christian Church and should have a message about the Church and its activities every week.

The fact is, however, that less than 5000 of our church homes are receiving this message weekly. But it may be truthfully said that these homes are the ones that in a very large measure shape the policy and do the active service of the Church. While we speak to probably 15,000 members weekly, the number is much too few. If the Herald could speak to at least 50,000 members weekly, the Church would have influence and dynamic, never realized as yet by the Church, her usefulness would be greatly increased and a great FORWARD MOVEMENT all along the line could be more readily and easily accomplished. I want to appeal to the brotherhood everywhere to join hands in a forward movement and as one of the forward steps to at once order the Herald into your home. Without an official paper, no church, lodge, or party can succeed—publicity is demanded and must be secured to spell “success.”

It is true that the Christian Sun in the Southland is the mouthpiece of the Southern Christian Convention, and the Vanguard of the Church in Canada, but while these are helpful and speak to the people, yet their message is somewhat of a local nature. The readers of these papers should also have the message of the larger church life and see the vision of the whole church at work for the wider and farther reach of its influence in extending the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Not only is the Publishing Association speaking through The Herald of Gospel Liberty, but it is speaking to many other thousands and these mostly the children and young people of our homes by means of the Sunday-school literature which silently comes into our Sunday-schools Sunday after Sunday. How many of these messengers of love, of helpfulness and Christian training and fellowship have been sent out? During the past year:

Bible Class Quarterlies, per quarter.....	40,375
Intermediate Quarterlies, per quarter.....	20,500
Junior Quarterlies.....	11,125
Total of.....	72,000

used and read every week. How many of our church membership realize to how many, young and old, we are sending our messages of life?

What an army we are reaching! This life-giving stream is flowing week after week, and slowly it may be, but surely, it is washing away stains of sin and clearing out rubbish and debris, that has clogged and stopped the channels of these hearts from the vitalizing spirit of the great heart of God. The power and usefulness of the Christian press is far-reaching, going on and on like a great and mighty river.

In addition to these seventy-two thousand quarterlies, a steady stream is going out week by week of 12,372 Sunday School Heralds and 8,528 Junior Heralds, making a grand total of 93,360 messages of love and helpfulness each week.

What a mighty influence for good!

The Sunday-school field is rich and productive—we must not let any noxious weeds of jealousy or indifference grow anywhere on our church plantation. Do not Cook our own literature for a few cents, by so doing you will “kill the goose that lays the golden egg.” Others in our schools have been reached by the graded lessons, the exact number I cannot give, but the House has sold $3,200.00 worth to our schools. One thousand seven hundred fifty Teachers and Officers Journals have also been sent to our Sunday-school workers per quarter.

Besides The Herald of Gospel Liberty and the Sunday-school literature mentioned, during the past year, the House has sold $7,202.87 worth of books and printed monthly 2100 Christian Missionarys.

The Christian Publishing Association speaks to as many people, possibly more, Sunday after Sunday as all the preachers in the Christian Church. We could speak to more and would like very much to do so, we therefore wish many more may receive our message, and their souls be fed on the “sincere milk” of the word of God through our Christian literature. Not only is the Publishing House doing this great service I have mentioned, but in this quadrennium it has established a job printing business. The past year we did job business to the amount of $12,249.31, while the profit was only $708.33, yet it helped bear the burden of our losses on some of our publications. The job field is a large and growing field, and it is our policy to increase the efficiency of our job plant so as to secure a large business of this kind. If you have any job business that you can turn our way, DO IT, and you will thereby help the general cause of the Church.

A LARGER CIRCULATION OF THE HERALD IS THE THING MOST NEEDED. Our MINISTERS and PASTORS can do more than anybody else to increase this circulation. Will you do it? Of course you will. Write to Mr. Netum Rathbun, Manager, and tell him you are ready to serve. If we will all do "our bit," we can increase the circulation of our paper which will mean a great help to every line of our church activity. A "helping hand" from every one, and the next few months will be the most successful of any for our church during the present quadrennium.

God help us to do our full duty, is the wish and prayer of your servant.

O. W. WHITELOCK.

JAPAN CHRISTIAN ORPHANAGE

We do not have a Christian Orphanage in Japan in a denominational sense, but are sharers in one purely Christian and interdenominational. Rev. E. K. McCord, one of our missionaries in Japan, tells of it as follows:

It was the fall of 1905 that the famine came. The previous spring had been late and cool and the farmers had planted their rice as usual, but it was slow in developing. And when fall came, the frosts were much earlier than usual.

This combination so affected the rice that it did not come to head. One section that usually yields about 12,000 bushels, yielded that season only ten bushels. This crop failure spread over three provinces, affecting hundreds of thousands of people. A very severe winter followed, adding to the intense suffering caused by the crop failure. It was indeed a terrible time, and Sendai, being the geographical center of the afflicted district, was deeply stirred.

On Christmas eve, the time of all times when to be homeless and starving is most sad and pitiful, a poor little starving waif crouched in a missionary's doorway, seeking shelter from the snow. He was found there on Christmas morning nearly frozen, and cared for. Of course there had already been much done in the way of temporary relief work, but this incident was the signal that something more definite and permanent was needed. And out of this incident grew the Orphanage, first on a small scale in the heart of one missionary, then under the supervision of one mission, and finally, as the need became more apparent and the calls for help more insistent, the various missions operating in the famine-stricken district united in the control and maintenance of the Orphanage as a union institution.

In Japan the Orphanage, while yet largely managed by missionaries, is growing in favor with both Christian and non-Christian Japanese, many of whom are becoming sustaining members of the Orphanage Association and paying monthly for its support.

The Association is duly incorporated under the laws of Japan, with a competent Board of Directors composed of seven missionaries and one Japanese Christian, a physician, and is thus able to hold property, receive bequests, and make permanent plans for the conduct of the Orphanage.

In addition to this Board of Directors, there is a local Executive Committee, made up of four missionaries and two Japanese (one a pastor, and the other a business man), all residents of Sendai. This committee has for its chairman a member of our own mission, and also Mr. Kitano, pastor of our Sendai church, is one of its members. In addition to this committee, there is a missionary lady superintendent who gives all her time to the Orphanage, her salary being paid by the Methodist Episcopal Church. To aid her in the work, she has a Japanese male assistant superintendent, two ladies (all Japanese), two cooks, and six house-mothers.

The Orphanage buildings are: A central school and office building (the dining-room also is located in this building), a separate rainy-day play-room for the boys and one for the girls, ten cottages for the children, a segregated hospital building, a Japanese house for the Japanese superintendent, a foreign house for the missionary superintendent, and one other Japanese house already on the land when originally purchased, but now rented to outsiders. The Orphanage grounds cover nearly four acres, thus leaving considerable space for vegetable cultivation, and each year this becomes more and more productive. The buildings are lighted by electricity, but Sendai has no water supply system and the Orphanage must depend on wells.

There are now about 100 children in the Orphanage, ranging in age from four to fifteen years, the number of boys and girls being about equal. These are not all real orphans, some even having both parents living.

The cost of conducting the Orphanage is about $475.00 per month.

The babies of our Cradle Roll Department are at this time caring for three babies in the Orphanage.

THE GREAT WAR

BY REV. OLIVER W. POWERS, A. M., D. D.

One year ago we were anxious spectators of a world tragedy. To-day we are participants in the most gigantic armed struggle the world has ever known.

For years, Europe has been an armed camp. For years the shadow of war has hung over the nations. Crisis after crisis has arisen and passed, and the world has breathed more freely, only to look forward with dread to some new menace.

The danger point shifted from place to place, until at last it remained definitely fixed in southeastern Europe. Three great forces centered there—the Turk, trying to maintain his feeble hold upon Constantinople; the Russian, seeking an outlet to the sea; the Teuton, striving to stretch a mighty hand over middle Europe and western Asia, from the North Sea to the Persian Gulf, a position which would enable him eventually to dominate the world. To this tangle of aspirations, complicated by the interests, real or imagined, of nearly every other nation of Europe, was suddenly added a new factor—the resolution of the Balkan nations to realize their own long suppressed desires, without regard to the plans of the great powers. Thus were fought the two Balkan wars, which ended with no questions settled, and the whole situation in unstable equilibrium.

This condition could not last. Out of it must come some issue. The opposing forces must try conclusions. Only an occasion waited. All was ready for the signal.

On the twenty-eighth of June, 1914, at Sarajevo in Bosnia, the Archduke Franz Ferdinand, Crown Prince of Austria-Hungary, and his wife, were killed by an assassin. The murderer was a Herzegovinian, the place, the capital of Bosnia, both countries the object of Serbian ambition as naturally belonging to that kingdom. On July twenty-third, Austria-Hungary addressed a note to the Serbian government, holding that country responsible for the murder, and for the anti-Austrian agitation which it was claimed had led to it. The note made ten demands upon the Serbian government for measures looking to the punishment of the alleged conspirators and the elimination of the menace to Austria-Hungary. The reply of Serbia to this note acceded to all the demands save one, which was declared to be contrary to the supreme law, but offered to submit the whole matter to arbitration. Austria-Hungary, characterizing the reply as dishonest and unsatisfactory, refused to accept it, and declared war against Serbia, July twenty-eighth, 1914.

Russia, having previously declared that she could not permit Austria-Hungary to war on Serbia "without good reasons," mobilized her army on the Austrian frontier. Germany, as Austria's ally and supporter, demanded that Russia suspend the mobilization order within twelve hours, and when Russia failed to comply, declared war upon her, August first. She at once attacked France, as being one of the allies of Russia, demanding a free passage through Belgium for that purpose. Belgium, with the support of Great Britain, refused, and opposed the passage by force, and on August fourth, Germany declared war upon France, Great Britain, and Belgium.

The Efforts for Peace

With the political situation which gave rise to this alignment of the nations, as well as with the diplomatic efforts, all of them futile and too late, to localize or avert the conflict, we have here nothing to do. But the drift toward war had not been ignored, nor allowed to pass without attempts to neutralize it. In 1899, the Czar Nicholas II. of Russia called a World's Peace Conference at The Hague. In 1907, at the same place he called a second. These conferences did little to actually provide against war, although they gave some attention to rules for conducting it in a "civilized manner." But at the second Conference, a memorial in favor of peace was presented, coming from churches of the continent of Europe, Great Britain, and America. In accepting it, the President of the Conference said; "Too much must not be expected from this Conference; it has taken nineteen hundred years of Christianity to give us the first International Peace Conference, and this is only the second one that has ever been held."

In January, 1914, the Evangelical Churches of Switzerland sent a proposal to the churches of Europe for a Congress of Churches, to consider the problems growing out of the Balkan situation, and the enormous military preparations of the nations. The proposal resulted in calling two preliminary conferences, one for the Protestant churches of Europe and America, at Constance, Germany, and one for the Catholic churches at Liege, Belgium. In February of the same year, the "Church Peace Union" was formed in America, and at once began to cooperate in arrangements for the Conference at Constance.

The Catholic Conference was called for August tenth, 1914. But before that date, Liege was occupied by the German troops, and the Conference was never held. The Protestant Conference met on August second. The day was Sunday, and at ten o'clock the delegates met, and representatives of twelve nations knelt in earnest prayer for peace. On that very day the German army invaded France through the neutral state of Luxembourg, and the Russian armies entered Germany. The next day, recognizing that further proceedings in Germany were impossible, the delegates left Constance in a body, by the last express out of that city, and passed out of Germany after an exciting day's travel, just an hour before the entire German railway system was taken over by the military authorities. The Conference resumed its sessions in London, August fourth; but the war movement had out-distanced that for peace, and before the delegates met, the governments of Great Britain and Germany had announced that the countries were at war.

Drawing in the Nations

The nations quickly began to take sides. August eighth saw the entrance into the war of Montenegro and Portugal; August twenty-third, Japan; and by October thirtieth, Turkey was involved on the side of Germany. On May twenty-third, 1915, Italy declared war on Austria-Hungary, and by the middle of October, Bulgaria was fighting on the side of the central powers. Roumania declared war against Austria-Hungary, August twenty-seventh, 1916. The little republic of San Marino, an independent state in northeast Italy, had also declared war against Austria-Hungary.

America at War

At the outbreak of the Great War, the President of the United States announced a policy of strict neutrality. It soon became evident that it would be difficult to avoid being drawn into the conflict. Interference with the rights and privileges of American citizens, especially upon the high seas, became the danger point. It became necessary to protest to the belligerents, especially England and Germany, concerning invasion of these rights. With England, the matters at issue concerned property interests only, and the controversy never reached the acute stage. With Germany, they soon involved the lives of American citizens, imperilled by the use of submarines, in a manner held by the United States to be contrary to international law.

On May seventh, 1915, the steamer Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine without warning, causing the death of one thousand, one hundred and fifty passengers, of whom one hundred and fourteen were Americans. May fourteenth, President Wilson addressed a note to Germany concerning the affair, in which he said; "The Imperial German Government will not expect the Government of the United States to omit any word or action necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens, and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

After repeated interchange of notes, during which time the grievances of the United States accumulated, a conditional promise was secured from the German Government, that merchantmen should not be sunk without warning unless they resisted or attempted to escape. The United States refused to consider the condition, holding Germany to individual responsibility for her acts.

December eighteenth, 1916, seeing that the danger of being forced into the war was immanent, the President addressed a note to the nations at war, asking them to state their aims, hoping that a basis for peace negotiations might be secured thereby. The opponents of Germany responded with a frank statement of their objects; but Germany only proposed a conference, and in terms that could only be accepted by acknowledging her as victor.

On January thirty-first, 1917, Germany announced "unrestricted submarine warfare," and prescribed the conditions under which one American ship a week might go to Falmouth, England, and return.

On February twenty-third, 1917, the United States severed diplomatic relations with Germany. April second, having called the Congress in special session, the President advised it that the course of the Imperial German Government was "in fact nothing less than war against the Government and people of the United States." April fourth, the Senate of the United States declared a state of war to exist between the United States and the Imperial German Government, and on April sixth, the Senate Resolution was passed by the House of Representatives and signed by the President. The United States was at war.

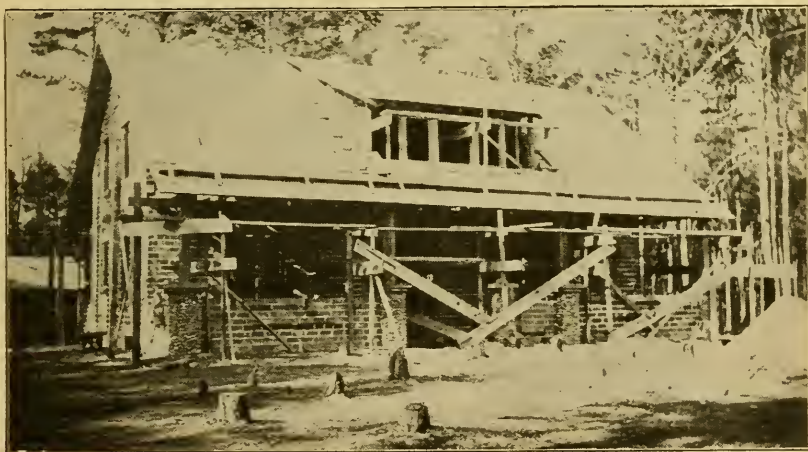

Widening the War Zone

April seventh, 1917, Cuba and Panama followed the United States into the war with Germany. Siam declared war against Germany on July twenty-second, Liberia on August seventh, China on August fourteenth, and in the month of November, Brazil took the same action. In addition, up to December first, 1917, Bolivia, Guatemala, Haiti, Costa Rica, Honduras, Nicaragua, Peru,

Uruguay, and Greece had severed diplomatic relations with Germany. On that date Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria, and Turkey were confronted by eighteen nations (counting San Marino) which had actually declared war, while nine more had severed diplomatic relations, and two more, Chile and Argentina, had taken action unfriendly to the "Central Powers."

The Outlook

The fourth year of the Great War finds the end not yet in sight. While the four nations controlled by the Imperial German Government are opposed by almost the whole world, having against them an immense preponderance of population and resources, yet they still have the advantage of a defensive position and the most perfect military machine ever devised still intact, and under a single high command. But the United States and her allies are drawing together for a mighty concerted movement of all forces. Our navy is helping to keep the sea lanes open. Hundreds of thousands of American soldiers are in France, preparing with all speed to enter the lists against the German troops. Hundreds of thousands more are in training on this side of the Atlantic. Arrangements are made to call millions more to the colors. A war credit of nearly twenty billions of dollars is available for the United States and her allies. America is preparing to throw her strength "to the last man and the last dollar" into the struggle to overthrow the menace of German autocratic domination, and to "Make the world safe for democracy."

Bishop Cottage (Unfinished), Franklinton, N. C.

The Woman's Board for Home Missions, desiring to observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization in a substantial way, decided to build a home for the president of Franklinton Christian College. It was also decided that the home should be christened Bishop Cottage, in honor of Rev. J. G. and Rev. Emily K. Bishop. Rev. Emily K. Bishop has served the Woman's Board for Home Missions for more than twenty-five years in the office of president. The building, when completed, will be a commodious one, with all necessary appointments for the comfort and convenience of the occupants, and yet without great cost, the entire building costing less than three thousand dollars.

EAST HOUNSFIELD, N. Y., CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The East Hounsfield Christian church was organized in January, 1817, with forty-seven charter members. The founder was Elder Lebbeus Field, who was originally a minister in the Methodist Church, but who, some time prior to 1807, withdrew from that denomination and entered the fellowship of what was then spoken of as the new faith. He came from Woodstock, Vermont. He was first located at what is known as Field Settlement, moving to East Hounsfield in 1816.

From the time of organization, 1817, until 1842, services were held in the homes and at the district school-building. In the latter year the present church building was erected, being dedicated December 31, 1842. Rev. Lyman

Christian Church, East Hounsfield, N. Y.

Rev. J. C. Emerson, Pastor

Perry was pastor at this time. He was followed by Rev. Charles Ayers, Rev. Lebbeus Field, and Rev. Franklin Kingsley.

Between 1854 and 1870 there was no settled pastor, the pulpit being supplied a portion of the time by Rev. Jason McKee and Rev. George S. Warren, of the Christian Church, and Rev. M. M. Rice and Rev. S. F. Danforth, of the Brownville Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1870 the present church sheds were built at a cost of about four hundred dollars. In 1875 a resident pastor was again engaged, Rev. James E. Hayes serving from 1875 to 1880.

In 1880 extensive repairs and improvements were made to the church property, about seven hundred dollars being expended.

Rev. H. W. Pierce followed Mr. Hayes, serving two years. Then came Rev. George E. Merrill, Rev. J. A. Mace, and Rev. B. S. Fanton, followed by a brief pastorate by Rev. Barney. Rev. Mr. Fanton remained eight years. Between 1892 and 1907 the church had no regular pastor.

In March, 1907, Rev. B. M. Smith was called, remaining one year. It was during his pastorate that the movement to build a parsonage was launched, the building being completed in 1909.

Rev. S. H. McKean followed Mr. Smith, and he was succeeded by Rev. H. W. Humphries, and he by the present pastor, Rev. J. C. Emerson, who began his labors in 1916.

The church not only has a well-furnished and cozy church building, but also a fine parsonage across the street from the church, all free from indebtedness, and supports a resident pastor.

The first Sunday-school was organized May 31, 1863. Among those who have served as superintendents were L. F. Allen, James Griswold, Brayton A. Field, Safford E. Field, Frank E. Ives, George B. McMullin, Charles E. Graves, Fred C. Loadwick, Burt J. Ives, Mrs. B. J. Ives, Flora Cleveland, Cloyd Ferguson. The present superintendent is Newman Hamburg.

The one hundredth anniversary of the organization was properly and fully celebrated by a three-days' service.

The pleasure of the celebration was marred by the absence of Miss Flora Cleveland, who had been one of the chief workers in arranging for the anniversary. She was suddenly summoned to Brockport on Saturday by a telegram announcing the critical illness of a niece, Mrs. Helen Marsh, the daughter of the late Merritt A. Cleveland. The community owes both the parsonage and the Hounsfield free library to Miss Cleveland's untiring and unselfish labors and the plans for the observance of the centennial were chiefly formulated by her. She had also prepared a history of the one hundred years of the church's life, to be presented at the centennial banquet.

Christian Parsonage, East Hounsfield, N. Y.

Rev. Omer S. Thomas, Secretary for the Department of Home Missions, was present, and among other prominent places filled by him, he spoke on Sunday morning on the importance of having a definite goal in life, rather than to fritter away our days in the pursuit of selfish pleasures or in an aimless waste of time and opportunity.

REV. J. W. WELLONS

THE GRAND OLD MAN OF THE SOUTH

BY W. A. HARPER

Rev. J. W. Wellons, D. D., or as we all of the South call him, Uncle Wellons, is the grand old man of the Southern Christian Convention. He is now ninety-two years of age, being born on New Year's Day, 1826. Dr. Dr. Wellons was born in Sussex County, Virginia, and at the early age of seven years was converted. That means that he was naturally religious.

J. W. Wellons

He was an active layman, rising to the office of deacon in Barrett's church, before he was called to the ministry. As a layman, he was a real leader in the church, taking the lead in prayer-meetings and conference work. He was twenty-eight years of age when he joined the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Conference and accepted license to preach as a probationer. Two years later he was at Hanks Chapel church, near Pittsboro, N. C., ordained to the full gospel ministry by order of his conference. The ordaining presbytery were Rev. W. B. Wellons, D. D. (his natural and only brother), Rev. T. J. Fowler, and Rev. Alfred Iseley. Since that time he has missed only two annual conferences—one on account of illness and the other because he was within the Federal lines during the Civil War.

Uncle Wellons had the evangelistic spirit and also the gift. He was a skilled musician as well. As preaching and singing evangelist, he has seen more persons converted under his preaching than any living minister of the Southern Church. Had he had the spirit of organization in equal measure, his converts would have been gathered into Christian congregations, rather than have gone to other communions. Our people in those days were great revivalists and feared to insist on their converts becoming members of our churches, thinking they would be regarded as sectarians. Uncle Wellons did exactly as others did, only he had larger gifts. As a consequence, in Franklinton, N. C., where he lived and labored so long, and where he was universally loved, we have not even to this day a Christian church, though we hope soon to have.

When Elon College was being agitated and initiated, he was an uncompromising advocate of the idea. He was a member of the Provisional Board that located the college where it is, and offered the first prayer, for its growth and progress, on the present campus. From that day to this, he has been a member of the Board of Trustees and of the Executive Board and has never missed a session of either. He is now one of its wisest and most trusted members.

In 1902 Uncle Wellons gave up his charge in Durham, N. C., and moved to Elon. Here he has since served as co-pastor of the College church, loved and honored by all. No figure is more often seen in the homes of the people than that of this aged, but dignified, Christian veteran, and wherever he goes there is joy and a real benediction. The tender kindness of the college students toward him is a thing of beauty and a tribute indescribable to a life hid with Christ in God.

Uncle Wellons has little of this world's goods, but he has left what he has to the permanent funds of the college that is in a very real sense the wife of his heart. He has been too busy in the King's business to establish a home and take a wife. Elon is his bride, and he is as fond of her as a gallant knight ever was or could be of his fair lady.

It is an honor to know and love this noble man.

REV. WILLIAM R. BRODT

WEST UNION, OHIO

The subject of this sketch is a native of Adams County, Ohio, a member of the Oak Grove Christian church, and a worthy minister of the Southern Ohio Christian Conference. He is a hero in service, as he is a Christian in character, and his example and personal sacrifice make an irresistible appeal to young men, called of God to preach, to make adequate preparation.

In his boyhood life he had but little, if any education, and at the age of twenty-one was impressed that he should go to school. Why he had such impressions, he did not know. He did not feel called of God to preach, nor to do any other special work, and so did not heed the impression. At the age of thirty-five, when married and the father of children, he was called of God to preach the gospel. To him it was more than an impression, it was a call, to which he immediately responded. From the time he was forty years of age until he was forty-two, he was impressed that he should go to school. He started in at the old home school and studied and recited in the class with his youngest daughter. At the first it was embarrassing, but he never wavered, nor for a single moment faltered in his work. At forty-nine he entered Defiance College. During the time he was in Defiance College he preached as he had opportunity and administered the communion for the unordained preachers who requested his service. He greatly desired to take a course in the Moody Bible School, but changed his plan and took a one-year course in God's Bible School, Cincinnati, Ohio. During this year he was pastor of his home church (Oak Grove) and Liberty Chapel church in Hamilton County, Ohio. He has been pastor of churches since first he entered the ministry, and is now doing commendable service in the Kingdom of God.

William R. Brodt

In closing his letter to the editor of this publication, who earnestly asked that he might give the facts of his call to the ministry and his effort to secure an education, he says, "My advice to one and all, young man, or middle-aged man, if you feel the impression to preach the gospel, preach, pray, and educate the best you can. Bless God for His blessings to me." The young man called of God to preach who says, "I can't go to school," should think of "Billy" Brodt and then pack his grip and start for college.

THE GRAND OLD MAN OF THE WEST

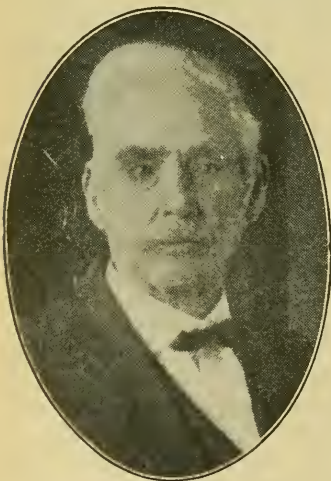

L. W. BANNON

Rev. L. W. Bannon, of Bloomingdale, Indiana, is nearing his hundredth year, having been born in the year of 1818. He is one of nature's nobleman, and God's good man. He says in writing to me, that he is in poor condition to write, owing to age and poor health, but though in his hundredth year, he uses good English, and writes in a plain and easily read hand. He shall speak for himself:

"I was born in Deerfield, Warren County, Ohio, on the first day of October, 1818. The first thing that I remember in early childhood was the falling of the stars in 1822, I being then between four and five years of age. That was the greatest event of the age. Everybody excited, and praying, and it was impressed on my young mind from the fact that it was the first time that I had heard my mother pray. Every one thought the end of time had come. In my early childhood, my father removed to Darke County, Ohio, and it being at that time almost in the wilds, my opportunity for schooling was very limited, which has always been the regret of my life. My first religious conviction was when I was between ten and twelve years old. My father hired me out to the man that was building the aqueduct across Mad River, near Dayton. I acted as water boy and did such other work as I could do. There was a man by the name of

for the ordinance of baptism, and I became attracted, though I was nearly a mile away standing on a bridge. I was so impressed with his wonderful voice that I went to where he was baptizing, and became so interested that I went to hear him preach that night, and the influence of the sermon stayed with me until I was twenty years old, when I joined the Christian Church and have tried to live a Christian life ever since. I was married to Livona Ashley, daughter of Loam Ashley, a Christian preacher, in 1830. I moved to Indiana in 1844, and the same year visited the Western Indiana Christian Conference, and have attended every session since, except this last session (1917). I was too feeble to attend. In my pastoral work I have been pastor of most of the churches belonging to the Western Conference, and have preached and conducted meetings in four States. I have broken ground and been in the front of building several of the best churches in the Western Indiana Conference. I was one of the three Elders appointed on Education in 1858, and recommended the building of a college in the jurisdiction of the Western Indiana Conference; the other members of the committee were Brother Humphreys and David Hayes, and out of that committee originated the building of Union Christian College, Merom, Indiana. I was a trustee of the same for several years. I have been a subscriber to The Herald of Gospel Liberty since Rev. I. N. Walker's first issue. You remember that I told you how I found him asleep under a tree and woke him up and subscribed for his paper."

L. W. Bannon

BETHLEHEM CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A LANDMARK IN THE PATH OF THE CHRISTIANS OF PREBLE COUNTY, OHIO

The Christians first had an organization about two miles west of New Lexington, in Preble County, where a small frame house was erected as early as 1834. This church was organized at Benjamin Bell's schoolhouse, and later on merged into the organization then known as the Lower church on Bantas Fork, and out of this merger came the Bethlehem Christian church.

Bethlehem Christian Church, Near Eaton, Ohio

In the early days of the Christians, public services were held in private homes, in barns, and groves, and in that region known as the Banta neighborhood, south of West Alexander, almost all the services were held in the house or barn of Isaac Banta. Elder Caleb Worley held service for an entire year (1844 and 1845) in Isaac Banta's home. Schoolhouses were used when available. The Bethlehem church, as such, was organized by Elder Jesse O. Harris in a log schoolhouse near the home of Isaac Banta, in Lanier Township, Preble County, Ohio, in the year 1840. Among the early supporters were the Samples, Hewetts, Quinns, Prebles, and others of that rugged, stalwart life which characterized their day. The church had all the experiences of pioneer life, and through all its years made a splendid contribution to the Kingdom of God.

It had at different times the pastoral care of some of the ablest ministers of the church, the last one to serve them being Rev. Pressley E. Zartmann, of Dayton. The organization was discontinued a few years ago and the property deeded without encumbrance to the Miami Ohio Christian Conference, by whom it was sold, in 1917, to Mr. Edwin Ware.

Mr. Lewis A. Potter, who served the church in almost every capacity and was a trustee for forty years, furnished the picture and the facts for this sketch.

REV. J. E. AMOS

Now in his eighty-fifth year, hale and strong and anxious to preach. He has exchanged pulpits with Levi Purviance. He was born in Indiana in 1833, and before he was twenty-one years of age, moved to Illinois, began preaching in 1858, and was ordained in 1863, the ordaining committee being Elders Hiram Fortner, E. W. Irons, and J. R. Jones. He has preached in Illinois, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, Idaho, and Oklahoma. He was at one time a trustee of Lincoln Christian College and president of the Western Illinois Christian Conference. He has built churches, raised money, and otherwise done the work of pastor and evangelist.

USEFUL QUOTATIONS

To educate the reason without educating the desire, is like placing a repeating rifle in the hands of the savage.—Herbert Spencer.

The motto of the great Arnold Rugby was: "It is not necessary that this should be a large school; it is necessary that it should be a good school."

America's achievements in the world of nations to-morrow will be the expression and embodiment of ideas set free in American colleges to-day—Dr. J. A. MacDonald.

Only as a nation is steadied, guided, and inspired by Christian principles will it fulfill its destiny; otherwise it will pass the way of other nations which have perished from the earth. The present peril of the nation is secularism.—J. R. Mott.

SEASIDE CHAUTAUQUA OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

DENOMINATIONAL CENTER

The following official bodies of the Church held sessions during the Chautauqua week: The Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, Sunday-school Board of The American Christian Convention, Home Mission Board, the Foreign Mission Board, the Woman's Mission Board, the Young People's Convention, and the Mission Field Secretary Committee of the Southern Christian Convention. These official bodies contain many of the leaders of our Church and it is a favorable time and place for holding unhurried conferences for our work. More than thirty of our ministers were present for rest, recreation, study, spiritual uplift, lectures, inspirations, and they returned to their fields with a new power and value.

W. H. Denison

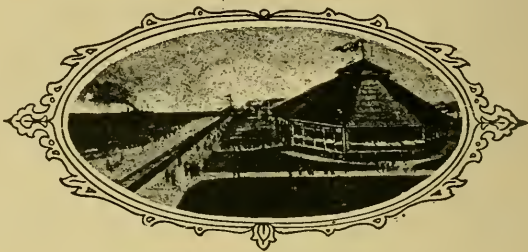

CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

The times are calling for trained Christian leadership. The war makes it still more imperative to train leaders of Christian thought and work. It is the purpose of the Chautauqua management to make this a place for just such training. We expect to give the best that can be secured on the great themes of Christian service and leadership. The lectures that have already been published show their value. Every church and conference should have some of its workers here. It is worth their while and worth the expense. We expect to deliver the goods. Every speaker invited to serve on the program is expected to be qualified to speak on the topic assigned and to prepare himself accordingly. The program is not a rehash of some old material.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CONFERENCES

A conference with special program and trained speakers is held each year for the young people in the "teen" age and some of the finest young people of our churches participate. Have you read two of the articles in the October, 1917, Teachers and Officers Journal? These young people have caught the vision and are introducing similar conferences in the local Sunday-school and conference conventions. They have appointed a "key" person in the conference to plan the work locally. It is the beginning of a large work. These are our future leaders in the churches.

Chautauqua Assembly Tent

SUPPORT OF THE CHAUTAUQUA

One dollar admits to all the program for the whole week. Of course, that does not pay the expenses of the speakers. All our folks donate their services and some of them pay their own travel and entertainment bills. Others cannot contribute both the work and expenses. Outside specialists must be paid and entertained. A permanent guarantee fund of $1,000 annually is being created by those who believe in the work of the Chautauqua. Already $800 has been pledged permanently by individuals giving from ten to twenty-five dollars each. Will you help to make up the other $200?

RECREATION

Old ocean rolls at one's feet, the sea breezes in hot July bring rest and sleep, the bathing is fine, and the beach delightful, the fellowship is beyond value, the scenes and fishing around this section are enchanting, the week of rest from usual work, the privilege of forming new acquaintances of our people from every section is highly prized. Come next year, Sunday-school worker, busy preacher, Bible student, Christian Endeavor officer, city and country church worker, with your problems, and find yourself greatly benefited.

If you are interested in missions, here is the place to get the best; if you are an elementary worker, we offer you the choicest help; here we will tell you about the Forward Movement of the Christian Church; come, let us speak to you on social service, evangelism, adult Bible classes, the spiritual life, the great themes that challenge Christian workers.

Write to the General Secretary, S. M. Smith, Norfolk, Va., or the undersigned, for information and it will be gladly given. Ask anybody who has been at any session and he will tell you its value. Plan now to come.

Franklinton Christian College is the only college of the Christians for the colored people, and was founded for the purpose of lifting the race from the state of ignorance in which the Civil War left them, in so far as was possible for one institution of this kind to do so. It is pleasant to announce that the institution has done a wonderful work, but with all that has already been accomplished, the college is only in the infancy of its possibilities. We are now in our third year in the new building, and if prospects materialize we shall be compelled to turn students away this year. We are glad to report this growth, but are sorry the building is too small.

The colored people are now fast awaking to their need of an education. We find this fact shown in the class rooms; in the homes; in conversation. Since the new building was completed, Franklinton Christian College has very rapidly been coming to the front as an educational center. Last year our class rooms were crowded and our dormitories were full.

We greatly need another building and more teachers if we are to keep pace with the rapidly increasing needs of the people. We need an Agricultural Course, and we need a Domestic Science Course, but we have not the room nor the teachers. Will not some one who is in sympathy with this great work, and who has the means, help us to supply some of these pressing needs?

We are clearing more land each year and placing it under cultivation. This means greater financial relief, and as soon as possible we hope to erect a silo so that we may keep some cows. This will mean a still greater financial relief.

We shall be glad at any time to give all the information that any inquiring friends may ask about the work.

Bishop Cottage is now being rapidly erected under the direction of the Superintendent. Ground was broken about July 20th and we hope to have the work far enough along that we can move into the rooms on the first floor by Christmas. The plans for the building were drawn according to existing prices, but owing to the rapid increase in prices for all kinds of building materials, we will not be able to complete the house this year unless more funds are available. We are perfectly contented in our log cabin, but the weather will become cool about January first, and too, Bishop Cottage will be somewhat more convenient and commodious.

NEW THINGS

I. To meet the war situation we have begun the publication of a weekly four-sheet folder, entered as second-class mail matter as The Elon College News Bulletin. In the campaign for students this summer we used this publication in place of letters to prospective students. During the college term we will mail it to our patrons and church leaders as a means of keeping the college before them constantly. There is need for this, since only forty-eight Christian churches are represented in our enrollment and slightly less than half the total enrollment comes from Christian homes.

II. We have instituted courses in Military Instruction and Drill, for which college credit is given. This work has been undertaken by and with the cooperation of the War Department.

III. A Department of Oratory has been provided for men with a special course in Public Speaking, required of all who are to appear on public occasions.

IV. We have organized two new literary societies—the Apollo for men and the Thalia for women.

V. We have provided a lectureship in Christian Missions with Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., as the lecturer.

VI. We have a pastor giving his entire time to the work of the college pastorate. The incumbent is Rev. N. G. Newman, D. D.

THINGS DONE

I. We have maintained our enrollment in spite of the losses of our upper classmen to the war.

II. We have kept our rates where they were before the war by wise use of our college farm and leased lands.

III. We have completed the raising of our Alumni Fund of $26,600 to pay for the Alumni Building. The class of 1917, with its thirty-one members, had the honor of putting it finally across, twenty-six of its number contributing.

IV. We have been the first Southern college to lose a son in the world-war. Charles Nottingham Whitelock, '18, died in the government service, Hospital Corps, in the government hospital, Rockford, Ill., on October 5, 1917. He was a rare soul and worthy the distinction. His parents were Judge and Mrs. O. W. Whitelock, Huntington, Ind.

V. We have sent more than 200 of our students and alumni to the war already to do their bit for human redemption.

Kirton Hall is a Fellowship Residence for young men preparing for the ministry of the Christian Church. Students in Residence may take any course of study in any college in Toronto approved by the dean. There are no fees and the cost of accommodation for ministerial students is nominal. Our attendance during 1916-1917 has been irregular on account of enlistment and service in the war. There is a guest room for the free lodging of ministers of the Christian Church whenever they may be in Toronto. For further information, address the dean, Prof. J. N. Dales, 513 Markham, Toronto.

History and Outlook

The corner-stone of Wilkinson Hall was laid in October, 1909. This is the main college building, and when school opened in September of the following year, it was only partly completed. Since then, the building has been completed, a new steam heating plant installed, and a fire escape is being put in place to comply with the requirements of the Wyoming law.

The enrollment in 1910 was four students, all of whom resided in the vicinity of Jireh. Each year has witnessed an increase in the number of students and an enlargement of the territory from which they came. The present year opened with an enrollment of fifty-eight.

The college occupies unappropriated territory and fills an important place in the educational work of Wyoming. Many of the boys and girls of this great State live at a distance from high schools, and this condition will prevail for many years. The educational need of the State is a junior college, and Jireh is trying to supply this need.

The college offers four years of high school and two years of college work.

To meet the needs of our young people, the courses must be organized for four classes of students.

1. There are students who wish to complete a classical college course. For these young people, the high school course must cover college entrance requirements, and the two years of college work must be acceptable to standard colleges and universities.

2. There are students who do not expect to do advanced educational work. They must be given some liberty in the outlining of their high school course, so that they may work toward some practical end.

3. The farmers and stockmen of the West are facing unsolved problems. There is a real demand for agricultural courses which will help the boys to face these conditions successfully. Fortunately the college is favorably situated for this work. It owns a farm of 160 acres, which can be utilized in giving agricultural instruction and also made to yield an income to the college. A State Experimental Farm is located at Jireh and the State Agricultural Board is willing to cooperate with the college in offering agricultural courses.

4. Wyoming needs school teachers. The State Board of Education is raising the standard for certification of teachers. There is urgent need of teacher-training courses. The college can make an important contribution to the educational work of Wyoming by giving normal courses for teachers.

The college has a department of Music with an enrollment of twenty-eight students.

Instruction is given in domestic science, but a special course in this subject ought to be provided. The instruction ought to be practical and sufficiently extensive to have genuine value in home making.

The Christian Church has assumed moral obligation to provide the Christian education which Wyoming may reasonably expect from a church college. We appropriated the field and we have no right to play the dog in the manger.

The college has adopted a definite program to meet its moral obligations. To carry out this program the institution must raise, within two years, the sum of $100,000.00. In this day of great movements, this is a modest sum and will but meagerly provide for the equipment, buildings, endowment, and other obligations of the college.

This brief history and program of the college have been given in the hope that the church may realize the necessity of giving more adequate support to its western work. This is the day of our opportunity.

ROLL OF THE DEAD

Nevertheless ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.—Psalms 82: 7.

Wherefore I praised the dead that have been long dead more than the living that are yet alive.—Ecclesiastes 4: 2.

A good name is better than precious oil; and the day of death, than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.—Ecclesiastes 7: 1-2.

And I say unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they that come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God: and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.—Revelation 7: 14-17.

REV. N. DEL McREYNOLDS

FROM A MEMOIR BY REV. HENRY C. CRAMPTON, EATON, OHIO

N. Del McReynolds was born at West Milton, Ohio, October 12, 1842. In April, 1853, the family removed to Springfield, Ohio; in October, 1855, to Martinsburg, Ohio, and in May, 1857, to Baltimore, in Fairfield County, Ohio.

In each of these places he received as much education as the schools of those times afforded, his school days ending at the latter place.

N. Del McReynolds

The work of the earlier years of Mr. McReynolds was varied—the manager of a small hotel at Fletcher, Ohio; clerk in a general store at Enon, Ohio; a school-teacher in Illinois and Ohio; assistant postmaster at Sumner, Illinois; able seaman in the United States Navy during the Civil War, doing service on the Ohio, Cumberland, and Tennessee Rivers; mayor of a village; clerk of Concord Township, in Champaign County, and of Mad River Township, in Clark County; a farmer for thirteen or more years; for three terms Justice of the Peace; clerk in a clothing store; traveling salesman for Henry Fos & Company; also for the Piqua Hosiery Company.

When about fourteen years old he manifested his faith in Jesus Christ, and his determination to live the Christian life, by uniting with the Baptist church at Baltimore, Ohio. In 1869 he transferred his membership to the Enon Christian church, Rev. Asa W. Coan, pastor, and remained a worthy, useful member of the Christian Church till it was said to him, "It is enough; come up higher."

His work in the field of Christian activity has also been varied. While living at Urbana he taught a class of young people in the Sunday-school of the Church of Christ, and in May, 1891, was elected president of Franklinton Christian College (Colored), at Franklinton, N. C. He served as a member of its Board of Control, and as treasurer of that Board; was ordained a minister of the gospel at Pleasant Hill, Ohio, in September, 1891, the following-named ministers taking a part in that service:—J. Warren Weeks, J. G. Bishop, W. T. Warbinton, W. A. Gross, C. C. Phillips, and C. W. Choate.

He served the Miami Ohio Christian Conference many years as secretary, one year as vice-president, and two terms as president, retiring from the presidency on account of ill health; also a member of its official board. He served the following-named churches as pastor:—Yellow Springs, Centerburg, Miami-ville, Remington, McKees Creek, and Bethlehem.

He served the Ohio State Christian Association as secretary, the Home Mission Board as canvasser for funds, The American Christian Convention as Secretary for Publications.

In 1890 he was elected delegate to The American Christian Convention at Marion, Indiana; in 1894 was ex-officio member at Haverhill, Mass.; and at Newmarket, Canada, in 1898, and at Norfolk, Virginia, in 1902. In all his duties and services he always proved a workman of whom we have not been ashamed.

On October 4, 1866, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Anna Johnson, and for more than fifty years they were permitted to travel life's pathway together.

To this union three children were born, two sons and one daughter. The sons preceded the father to the unseen world, one dying in infancy, and the other, John D., when twenty-six years old, and the daughter, Miss May Fonte, has been spared to bless the home.

After months of anxious waiting, watching, and suffering, the release came to Brother McReynolds, Tuesday afternoon, June 26, 1917, and he leaves the true and noble wife and daughter.

The funeral services were held in the home at Bellefontaine, Friday afternoon, June 29, 1917, conducted by Henry C. Crampton, of Eaton, Ohio, and the following-named ministers also had a part in the service:—T. C. House, West Liberty, Ohio; George C. Enders, Defiance, Ohio; B. H. Chrisman, Centerburg, Ohio; O. W. Powers, Dayton, Ohio, and Rev. Mr. Harrison, of the Disciple church of Bellefontaine. The burial was at Urbana, Ohio, and Rev. H. R. Clem, of Springfield, Ohio, offered prayer at the grave.

REV. P. W. McREYNOLDS, D. D.

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?"

October 3, 1917, the telegraph wires carried sad and startling news to the entire denomination. On that date, President and Mrs. P. W. McReynolds, with her invalid brother, Mr. Clyde Kniffen, left Defiance in their closed automobile early in the morning, expecting to visit Mrs. Martha McGrew of Warren, Ind., at the noon hour and reach the home of the President's mother in Kokomo, in the afternoon. Near eleven o'clock of that beautiful October morning, while crossing the track of the Clover Leaf Railway near Curryville, Ind., their machine was struck by a fast train. Mrs. McReynolds was killed instantly, the President was so injured that he lived only an hour, and the brother, though he lived almost two weeks, was never conscious.

Just how the tragic accident occurred no one knows. From the report of the train men, it seems that President McReynolds, who was driving, had attempted to stop, but the momentum of the car carried it onto the track, directly in front of the onrushing train. Evidently the three were attempting to escape from the stalled machine, but the time was not sufficient.

Peter Wesley McReynolds was born March 16, 1872. He was the ninth of eleven children born to Raven and Nancy Orem McReynolds, who lived on a farm in Tipton County, Indiana, near the Prairieville Christian Church. The mother and all the brothers and sisters are living. The father had come from Kentucky when a lad, and the mother had come to the same neighborhood from Switzerland County, Indiana. The father and mother and all the children became members of the Prairieville Church, Wesley, as his family spoke of him, uniting in 1888. In September, 1892, he was ordained in the same church, by Dr. J. G. Bishop, Dayton, Ohio, and Dr. E. A. DeVore, a professor in Union Christian College.

Wesley attended the rural school near his home until fourteen years of age. In 1886 he attended the Kokomo high school, and in 1887 and 1888 the Alto high school. In the spring of 1889, he attended the Central Normal College at Danville, Ind. The following year he taught the district school at Cassville, Ind., and returned to Danville for the spring and summer terms. In the autumn of 1890, he entered Union Christian College where he studied until 1892 when he had completed the theological course then offered. During the school year, 1892-93, he attended Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Michigan, acting at the same time as pastor of the Christian Church at Berkey, Ohio. The year 1894-95 was spent in Hiram College, from which institution he received the degree, Bachelor of Arts, in June. In June, 1896, he received the degree, Bachelor of Divinity, from Union Christian College. Several years later, Elon College conferred on him the honorary degree, Doctor of Divinity.

For seven years he was pastor of the Christian Church at Marshall, Mich., going there at first under the direction of Dr. J. G. Bishop, then Mission Secretary. The work began in a very small way but grew rapidly. During his pastorate a church building and a parsonage were erected, and the church was left in a flourishing condition when he came to Defiance after spending some time in the summer terms of the University of Chicago.

P. W. McReynolds

In the summer of 1901, Mr. McReynolds came to Defiance as a teacher and dean in the institution then popularly known as "Defiance College," but operating under the charter granted to the "Defiance Female Seminary." Doctor Latchaw was the president and had brought the institution to the attention of the Christian Church, but official relations had not been fully established. In 1902, Doctor Latchaw accepted a call to head a college elsewhere. The citizens of Defiance prevailed upon Professor McReynolds (as he was always known in Defiance) to continue the work. This he did, though the outlook was not promising. He brought to the task extraordinary energy and a rare spirit of consecration and self-sacrifice. The history of the rapid growth of the institution is well known. Suffice it to say that he saw, in the fifteen years of his presidency, remarkable fruits of his labor.

On December 19, 1914, President McReynolds and Miss Bertha Kniffen, a teacher in the high school of Los Angeles, were married at Pasadena, California. They came to Defiance early in the spring and together took up the work of the institution. Their home on the campus became the heart of the life of the College and a vital part of the community. Miss Kniffen was born near Britton, Michigan, November 3, 1878. She was graduated from Defiance College in 1902, and was a successful teacher until the time of her marriage. Two sisters and two brothers of her family are left.

Saturday afternoon, October 6, brief, simple, but impressive services were conducted in Weston Hall. The bodies had been brought to the home the evening before, had been carried to Weston Hall in the morning, where they lay in state. Saturday forenoon, students, former students, friends, and citizens came in throngs to pay their respects. The afternoon services, largely attended by ministers of the denomination, representatives from other colleges, students, faculty, alumni, and trustees, were conducted by Doctor Martyn Summerbell, who was assisted by Rev. N. G. Newman and Rev. F. G. Strickland. The bodies rest in Kokomo.

FOR LOVE OF HIS COUNTRY

Rev. W. Alec. Chisholm, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chisholm, was born in Grafton, Ontario, January 8, 1888, and died in France, March 9, 1917. The deceased was a soldier in the army of his country and died from wounds received while in action on March 2, 1917. Sergeant Chisholm was formerly a purser on the steamer Modjeska, and was a very popular employee of the company.

At the age of seventeen years, he enlisted in the army of the King and united with the Christian Church, of which he was a member in good standing and full fellowship at the time of his death, his membership being in the First Christian church of Toronto, Ontario. He had a good English education, having graduated from the high school at Oakwood. In 1908 he began his collegiate course in Toronto, and in 1912 entered McMaster University of the same city. During his student years in Toronto he was a resident in Kirton Hall. He was a licentiate member of the Ontario Christian Conference, and a promising young minister of the denomination. His first enlistment was with the Royal Signalers Corps, but was later transferred to the Engineers, with which unit he was working at the time when fatally wounded. He answered the call of his country not as an adventurer, but as a loyal citizen of the country he loved. He believed it to be his duty, which he expressed thus, "I am needed over there, and it is such as I should go."

Soldier, rest! Thy warfare o'er,
Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking!
Dream of battle-fields no more,
Days of danger, nights of waking.

In our isle's enchanted hall,
Hands unseen thy couch are strewing,
Fairy strains of music fall,
Every sense in slumber dewing.

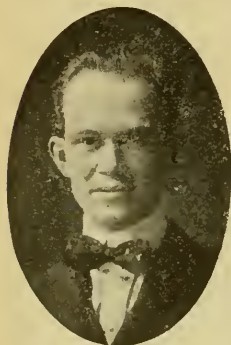

Soldier, rest! Thy warfare o'er,
Dream of fighting-fields no more;
Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking,
Morn of toil, nor nights of waking.

CHARLES NOTTINGHAM WHITELOCK

Charles Nottingham Whitelock, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Whitelock, of Huntington, Indiana, was born June 10, 1896, in the city of Huntington and died October 4, 1917, at Camp Grant, Rockford, Illinois.

Charles united with the First Christian Church of Huntington when only nine years of age and was a faithful Christian all his life. At the time of his death, he was president of the Y. M. C. A. of Elon College. He was a Bible student, many times he would fall asleep in his bed with his Bible beside him. He graduated from the Huntington high school in the class of 1914. In September following, he entered Elon College, N. C., and was a senior, being in class '18.

Charles Whitelock

Charles felt it was his duty to enter the service of his country and enlisted August 4, 1917, at Indianapolis, Indiana, in American Red Cross Ambulance Co. 18, and was sent to Camp Grant, Rockford, Illinois.

He took sick with appendicitis September 26, and was operated upon Monday following, but it was too late, peritonitis had set in and he died October fourth, two months from his enlistment. He was taken to his home for burial and the last sad rites were held on Monday following, conducted by his pastor, Rev. L. E. Smith, assisted by Rev. W. D. Samuel, D. D., who had received him into church. He was buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, and was the first in his county to answer the death call of his country in the war with Germany. He was buried with military honor.

The Rose Still Grows Beyond the Wall

Near shady wall a rose once grew, budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew, shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall; slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall, thro which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength, with never a thought of tear or pride,
It followed the light thro the crevice's length, and unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view, were found the same as they were before,

And it lost itself in beauties new, breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve, and make our courage faint or fall?
Nay! let us faith and hope receive; the rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide; just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side, just as it will for evermore.

War is an inevitable occurrence in human history, and they who give their lives in defense of the right should be held in everlasting remembrance. In this Honor Roll we have faithfully and carefully recorded the names given us in response to a request published in "The Herald of Gospel Liberty" and "Christian Sun."

Blow ye the trumpet in Zion;
And sound an alarm in mine holy mountain;
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble:
For the day of the Lord cometh, for it is near:
A day of darkness and gloom:
A day of clouds, and of thick darkness.
As a dusk spread upon the mountains,
Cometh a numerous people and strong.
Like them, there hath not been of old time,
And after them, there shall not be,
Even to the years of many generations.

Before them, a fire devoureth,
And behind, a flame burneth;
The land is as the garden of Eden before them,
And behind them, a desolate wilderness;
Yea, and nothing shall escape them.
Their appearance shall be like the appearance of horses,
And like horsemen shall they run;
Like the sound of chariots, on the tops of the mountain, shall they leap;
Like the sound of a flame of fire, which devoureth stubble;
They shall be like a strong people, set in battle array.

Before them, shall the people be much pained:
All faces shall gather blackness;
They shall run like mighty men;
Like warriors shall they climb the wall;
And they shall march every one in his way;
Neither shall they turn aside from their paths;
Neither shall one trust another:
They shall march each in his road;
And if they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.
They shall run to and fro in the city,
They shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up into the houses;
They shall enter in at the window, like a thief.
Before them, the earth quaketh, the heavens tremble:
The sun and moon are darkened;
And the stars withdraw their shining.

And Jehovah shall utter his voice before his army;
For his camp is very great,
And the day of the Lord is very great
And very terrible, and who shall be able to bear it?
Yet, even now, saith Jehovah,
Turn ye unto me with all your heart,
With fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning,
And rend your heart, and not your garments,
And turn unto Jehovah your God;
For he is gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great kindness,
And repenteth him of evil.

—Joel 2: 1-13.

"Mine eye hath seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

"I have seen him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damp;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamp,
His day is marching on.

"In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free, While God is marching on."

In this Roll of Honor are the names of those who went out from the churches named. Some were members of the church, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor Society. Others were members of the Sunday-school and others only of the church. In the record no classification is recorded.

OUR CHAPLAINS

H. E. Rountree

We have two regularly appointed chaplains in the United States service—Rev. W. H. Elder and Rev. H. E. Rountree. We regret that we cannot give a picture of Chaplain Elder, but are glad that we can of Chaplain Rountree.

Chaplain Elder is in the Navy and attached to the U. S. S. Columbia. He is a graduate of Elon College, and represents the Christians.

Rev. H. E. Rountree is in the Chaplain's Corps, United States Naval Reserves—that means that his service is for the duration of the war. He, too, is a graduate of Elon College, and represents the Christians.

The duties of a chaplain are: to care for the social, moral, and spiritual welfare of the men of the uniform. He has entire supervision in these things. The social side of the service includes amusements and athletics; the moral and religious are whatever he makes them, and is conducted on an undenominational platform. The church service is usually held in such form as is customary in the church to which the chaplain may belong.

DEDICATIONS, REDEDICATIONS, AND OPENINGS

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of Jehovah, because the glory of Jehovah filled Jehovah's house. And all the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of Jehovah was upon the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks unto Jehovah, saying, For he is good; for his loving-kindness endureth forever. Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel. But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; then will I pick them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. And this house, which is so high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why hath Jehovah done thus unto this land, and to this house?—2 Chronicles 7: 1, 2, 3, 18, 19, 20, 21.

The Northern New York Conference was organized May 25, 1831, at Liray (Sanfords Corners), N. Y. Elder Lebbeus Field was moderator and Elder Jason McKee, clerk.

In 1834 there were eighteen churches within the territorial boundary of the Conference. Seven ministers served these churches. They were Ira Allen, A. Knapp, A. Field, Eli Denia, John Smith, Lebbeus Field, and Jason McKee. In 1841 the names of Elders G. S. Warren, Lyman Perry, and Franklin Kingsley were added to the list.

In 1854 the conference met at Hermon, St. Lawrence County, and voted that all the churches should organize Sunday-schools.

The conference has had a varied degree of success, at times flourishing, at other times depressed. Once or twice reorganized, but through it all her life went not out and her strength was not abated.

For sixty years and more of the one hundred, the name of Lebbeus Field was indelibly written in its history and on the hearts of all who knew him. He was a preacher of great power and influence and though dead he yet speaketh. To Miss Flora Cleveland, vice-president of the conference, is due much credit and great honor for the success of the conference in these latter years.

NORTHERN MICHIGAN

The Secretary of the Northern Michigan Christian Conference writes me as follows: "I have reason for believing that we as a Conference will remain as members of the Michigan Conference, but will carry on our work in Northern Michigan as we have planned, except that we will not be known as an Annual Conference, but rather as a Quarterly Conference, or Association."

Explanatory—The Northern Michigan Christian Conference met last week, and it was my privilege to be there. The conference was reorganized as a Quarterly Conference—name Northern Michigan Quarterly Conference. Officers are as follows—President, Mr. Cook; Secretary, Willard Criswell (not a Rev., as the Annual of 1917 printed). All the churches named in the report of last year, save Pleasant Valley, are members of the Michigan Conference. Pleasant Valley is a member of no conference at present. The Quarterly Conference at present stands subject to, and in the bounds of the Michigan Conference. S. W. Potter.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

A WORD ABOUT THIS MINISTERIAL LIST

Everything was done that care, patience, and perseverance could do to have the ministerial list correct. After it had received editorial and clerical attention, it was carefully checked up by the original reports with unusual care, tested by every available means by which reliable corrections might be made, and finally, that it might contain the latest information as to post-office address, the Business Manager of The Christian Publishing Association took time to compare it with the list of subscriptions to The Herald of Gospel Liberty. There are a few names on the list that were not reported to the office of the editor by conference officers. These few are given without naming conference membership. The absence of a name from the ministerial list means that it was not in the ministerial report given by the Conference Secretary.
